

Resources for Supporting the Bisexual Community

Social Media Toolkit

Each year, Bisexual Visibility Day is celebrated on September 23. In recognition, the Center of Excellence on LGBTQ+ Behavioral Health Equity has created a resource list for behavioral health providers. Please help us spread the word by sharing the below language and graphics through your social media, newsletters, and email. Thank you!

Recommended Language

Twitter: September 23 is #BiVisibilityDay! How can #behavioralhealth providers best support the unique needs of #bisexual people? Download the Center of Excellence on LGBTQ+ Behavioral Health Equity's resource list at bit.ly/Bi-Resources

Facebook: September 23 is Bisexual Visibility Day! How can behavioral health providers best support the unique needs of bisexual people? Download the Center of Excellence on LGBTQ+ Behavioral Health Equity's resource list at bit.ly/Bi-Resources

Instagram: September 23 is #BiVisibilityDay! How can #behavioralhealth providers best support the unique needs of #bisexual people? Download the Center of Excellence on LGBTQ+ Behavioral Health Equity's resource list at bit.ly/Bi-Resources #LGBTQMentalHealth

Linkedin: September 23 is #BiVisibilityDay! How can #behavioralhealth providers best support the unique needs of #bisexual people? Download the Center of Excellence on LGBTQ+ Behavioral Health Equity's resource list at bit.ly/Bi-Resources #LGBTQMentalHealth

Newsletter/email: In recognition of Bisexual Visibility Day, which is celebrated each year on September 23, the Center of Excellence on LGBTQ+ Behavioral Health Equity has compiled a list of resources for professionals to use to better support the unique needs of bisexual people. Download here: <https://lgbtqequity.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/03/Bi-Visibility-Resource-List.pdf>

Social media/email graphic

Download here